Nanjing, the capital city of Jiangsu Province in East China, is a city featuring a rich history and cultural heritage. As one of the four ancient capitals of China, Nanjing has been considered as the political, economic, and cultural center of China for several dynasties. It is only about 1.5 hours by high-speed rail from Shanghai, the magic metropolitan city in China.

Nanjing is home to many historical sites and landmarks, including the Dr. Sun Yat-sen's Mausoleum, Xuanwu Lake, the Presidential Palace, the Phoenix Tower, and the Confucius Temple. In addition to its profound history and culture, Nanjing is also known for its delicious cuisine, which features a blend of sweet and savory flavors.
